

Lisa Ann Landry, M.S.M, is an exuberant force of light and empowerment to those she comes across. As a trainer she is committed to presenting programs that empower and enlighten as well as offer her audiences approaches to the best tools available for their success.

Lisa Ann Landry has over 25 years experience delivering soft skills and technical training. She became an award winning orator in high school and to this day still speaks and trains nationally and internationally. With an extensive background in human resources training and development she designs and delivers programs to widely diverse audiences large and small. Her publications include an interactive training program called Internet and Computer Core Concepts produced by Learn Key Corporation and a train the trainer program called COGS – Closers, Openers, Games & Setup produced by Next Steps International.

Lisa Ann holds an MS in Management from Indiana Wesleyan University and completed post graduate courses in Management and Decision Sciences at Walden University. Her education and work experience makes her “Manager 911” to her clients. If you are frustrated with various types of employee problems and need ideas on what to say and do call “Manager 911”.

Lisa Ann began the process of using social media marketing in February 2010 by participating in the Social Networking Coaches Club. The social media system she learned resulted in HUGE opportunities –Three of the exciting opportunities include holding the position of Direct of Social Media with IDG, becoming a Certified Coach with SNCC & teaching Social Network Marketing 101 type seminars throughout the US and Canada. Other exciting opportunities are in the works.

Come light up your life in training and coaching sessions with your corporate trainer Lisa Ann Landry.